

TIMOTHY DOMBEK: BRIEF BIOGRAPHY

The Rev'd Canon Timothy M. Dombek serves as Canon for Stewardship and Planned Giving for the Diocese of Arizona, after serving six years as Canon to the Ordinary for Bishop Kirk Smith here in Phoenix. Prior to accepting the call to Arizona in October 2007, Timothy was rector of St. James Episcopal Church in Greenville, South Carolina.

Before moving to Greenville, Timothy served as school chaplain at a K-12 college-preparatory school in Columbia, SC, while also serving as priest-in-charge of an historic African-American Episcopal Church, in rural Jenkinsville, SC. The Dombeks moved to South Carolina, in 1996 from Church of the Transfiguration, Dallas, TX, where he served four-years as Family Life Minister.

Prior to ordained ministry, Timothy, worked five years as a Certified Financial Planner, following seven years in broadcasting as a radio announcer in his home state of Indiana. He and his wife, Beth, a recently retired Elementary school resource teacher, have been married twenty four years this June, and they have one child, Jonathan, who turns 21 in October.
