

Wesley (Wes) R. Scott is an Attorney Adviser (Technical) to the IRS Office of Chief, Estate and Gift Tax. He is responsible for a variety of legal and technical matters at a national level in the Estate & Gift Tax Program. His duties include identification and analysis of technical issues, stakeholder communications, labor relations, and monitoring strategic plans and actions. He is based in Phoenix, Arizona.

Prior to his current assignment, Wes was the IRS Supervisory Attorney (Estate Tax) in Phoenix with supervisory responsibilities in Arizona, California, Nevada, and New Mexico. He began his IRS career in 1991 as an Estate Tax Attorney in Fort Worth, Texas.

Wes received his BBA in Accounting magna cum laude from Abilene Christian University in Abilene, Texas in 1987 and his JD from Baylor University in Waco, Texas in 1990. He is a member of the State Bar of Texas and the State Bar of Texas, Tax Section. He is also licensed as a Certified Public Accountant in Texas.