

Allison D. Gee of Allison Gee Fine Art Appraisals is an Accredited Senior Appraiser through the American Society of Appraisers. She is designated and tested in Fine Arts and has served private, public and corporate clients throughout Arizona and the United States since 2001. Her practice focuses on American and European paintings, prints, works on paper and sculptures.

Ms. Gee earned a Masters of Art in Art History from the Herberger Institute for Design and the Arts at Arizona State University, Tempe, Arizona. She also graduated with a Certificate in Appraisal Studies in Fine and Decorative Art from the University of California, Irvine. Her continuing education includes participation in multiple symposiums and conferences with speakers from the Internal Revenue Service's Art Appraisal Services division and legal department on valuation issues involving laws and regulations in estate taxes and charitable donations.

Ms. Gee served in an elected position on the International Personal Property Discipline Committee of the American Society of Appraisers, including a two-year term on the Executive Board. She is a Past President of the Phoenix-Metro Chapter of ASA and also served on the Board of the local chapter from 2002-2005.

Ms. Gee has studied art and conducted research at many of the world's finest museums, including the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York and the Casa Buonarroti in Florence, Italy. She is a member of ArtTable, the national leadership organization for professional women in the visual arts, and also is involved in the local arts community. Ms. Gee is a member of the Phoenix Art Museum Circles of Support and Contemporary Forum, as well as being a Founding Member of the Advocacy for the Arts at the Arizona State University College of Law. She is a past Board Member of Art Link, the oldest all-volunteer arts organization in downtown Phoenix.
