

Tiffany Teel House, CAP® Gift Planning Institute

Tiffany House is a Chartered Advisor in Philanthropy (CAP®) and President and CEO of the Gift Planning Institute. She is passionate about inspiring donors to accomplish more through tax advantaged gifts and legacy gifts that create win-win outcomes. Her experience of being a financial advisor and helping wealthy clients create a master game plan that incorporated their ethical and financial legacy gives her a unique approach to planned giving.

The Gift Planning Institute provides outsourced planned giving services to non-profit organizations, gift planning strategies for professional advisors and helping donors create a legacy of their own design. Tiffany's experience helping clients donate complicated assets tax efficiently provides a unique vantage point. She enjoys collaborating with tax, legal, financial and business transition advisors, but her favorite part of consulting is connecting donors to organizations that ignite their passions!

Being an active member of the community is important to Tiffany. She is the Past President of Planned Giving Round Table of Arizona (PGRT) and an active board member of other organizations. She also sits on many advisory boards and enjoys participating in leadership activities and organizations.

She is a mother of 3 lovely daughters with an amazing and supportive husband. Her passion is riding and spending time with her Baroque Horses.
