

Tiffany Teel House, CAP®

Gift Planning Institute

Tiffany House is a Chartered Advisor in Philanthropy (CAP) and President and CEO of the Gift Planning Institute. She is passionate about inspiring donors to accomplish more through tax advantaged gifts and legacy gifts that create win-win outcomes. Her experience of being financial advisor and helping wealthy clients create a master game plan that incorporated their ethical and financial legacy gives her a unique approach to planned giving.

The Gift Planning Institute provides outsourced planned giving services to non-profit organizations, gift planning strategies for professional advisors and helps donors create a legacy of their own design. Tiffany's experience helping clients donate complicated assets tax efficiently provides a unique vantage point. She enjoys collaborating with tax, legal, financial and business transition advisors, but favorite part of consulting is connecting donors to organizations that ignite their passions!

Tiffany enjoys public speaking as a way to educate individuals and organizations about the win-win outcomes of planned giving, maximizing gift impact, creating a master game plan for life, tax advantaged planning options, legacy planning, and planned giving tools and applications.

Being an active member of the community is important to Tiffany. She is the Past President of Planned Giving Round Table of Arizona (PGRT) and board member of AT Still University Women in Philanthropy, Junior Achievement of Arizona and Don't be a Chump! Check for a Lump! She enjoys being an advisory board member for many organizations. She is a Member of the ASU President's Club, has participated in EO and is actively engaged in personal development with Landmark. She is a mentor in the Arizona Community Foundation's Endowment Building Initiative (AEBI) and is a graduate of Scottsdale Leadership Class 31.

Tiffany studied Environmental Science at the University of Arizona and accepted a NASA Grant Internship working on documentation of Global Climate Change. After college, she became an owner and operator of Kooconusa Resort & Marina in Libby, Montana. The resort offered many amenities and a real-life experience of running a multifaceted business. She was a co-founder of Beyond the Ask, a company that helped non-profit organizations fundraise.

Tiffany has 3 lovely daughters with an amazing and supportive husband. Training horses has always been her passion. She is dedicated to the classical pursuits of dressage with her main focus on Spanish Riding. She enjoys showing her horses and has hosted horse shows, events and tournaments. Tiffany also enjoys sharing her life with a wide variety of animals such as a pig, ducks, chickens, dogs, bunnies and her horses.
