

“Planned Giving and Endowment Basics”

This introductory workshop is intended for anyone whose job does not regularly include solicitation of planned gifts or endowments. The session will demystify the language and basic concepts of planned gifts and endowments, help improve your comfort and confidence in speaking with donors about their legacies, and provide insights on situations that make a donor a good prospect for a planned giving or legacy conversation.