

Beth Salazar, CAP®

Beth brings over 40 years of experience to the non-profit sector. After retiring from the YMCA in 2012 after 33 years of service, she consulted with a variety of non-profits as Salazar Resource Development. In 2014 she consulted with SARRC – Southwest Autism Research and Resource Center and stayed to become their Planned Giving Manager. Beth is a Chartered Advisor in Philanthropy (CAP®) and a volunteer mentor for the ACF – Arizona Endowment Building Institute. She has a Bachelor of Arts from Morehead State University and a Master of Arts from San Francisco State University. She is an avid gardener and cook and enjoys all kinds of exercise and walking her dogs.
