

Advanced presentation regarding the uses of limited liability companies in charitable gift planning including the structure and taxation of limited liability companies, what to look for when accepting a gift of a limited liability company, and how to use limited liability companies to reduce risk in accepting gifts.